

I Am The Fire

I see the world with brand new eyes
All my colours come to life
A fallen galaxy rises up
No more pain, we changed the past.

Healed the damage, took all courage to reverse the anti-life.
Solar-christed, undivided heard the call and came to fight.

A one-way ticket but I'd take it
any day if it's to change
Centuries of dark oppression
Breaking circles, here I am.

I am the fire.

All the nights I cried myself to sleep.
Didn't know what lied within me.
Felt so alone in a sea of souls so blind they wouldn't see but I'd forgotten how I'd come here straight to open up their eyes.

I Am The Fire

it's not them, it's their discomfort towards the breaking down of lies.

A one-way ticket but I'd take it
any day if it's to change
Centuries of dark oppression
Breaking circles, here I am.

I am the fire.
