

RIVER

Jump in the water.
You learned along the way to do each time what life required of you now Breathe into the river
You know it is hypocrisy to say it's something you've never seen
Life only flows like a river, like a river

Don't say you're stuck
cause you're still budding
Think you're lost but you know nothing After dark there's only light and
after dark here comes the lightning

Life only flows like a river and
after dark here comes the lightning.

Take every teardrop and turn it into rain for your elaborate terrain of blooms
Now heed inner guidance Tune out the noise and breathe anew it's all in there, right in the silence

Life always knows where you're needed, every minute.
Now you shouldn't be anywhere else none other than you.

Don't say you suck cause you're still learning
after dark here comes the lightning.

Life only flows like a river and
after dark here comes the lightning.

Don't say you're stuck
cause you're still budding,
think you're lost but you know nothing
After dark there's only light and
after dark here comes the lightning.

Life only flows like a river and
after dark here comes the lightning.
